Wilkes-Barre River Common & Nesbitt Park

The Susquehanna River is one of our area's greatest natural resources. For the past eleven years, people from all over have come together to celebrate River's Month and our wonderful river with a weekend long celebration. This year's event promises to be bigger and better than ever.

Want an up-close experience, free drinks and snacks while having fun at the 2010 Wyoming Valley RiverFest?

Want a free RiverFest 2010 staff t-shirt?

Be part of something great!

Volunteer!

You can enjoy the VIP Experience at RiverFest beginning at 3pm on Friday, June 18th and running through the afternoon of Sunday, June 20th.

We have a limited number of volunteer positions available. There are 20 positions for each day that need to be filled with 2-4 hour time commitments. Help is needed for activities, monitoring rides, boat launches, children's art projects, set-up and staffing information stations.

How do you get the VIP Experience at RiverFest?

It's easy! Log onto www.1-800-volunteer.org or www.seniorcorpsofpa.org and search RiverFest Wilkes-Barre.

You can also visit www.rivercommon.org or email us at rivercommon@gmail.com

Or call and leave a message at 570-822-1159 ext 3370 or call Penn State Cooperative Extension at 570-825-1701.

There will be an informational meeting on June 7th at 2:30pm and 7pm at the River Commons Millennium Circle.

Please Sign up by June 3rd

It's that easy!
